Description	Discover the Swiss Alps like never before on a ride through the mountains aboard a one-of-a-kind panoramic bus, guided by a local expert sharing stories and insider tips along the way. Start in Interlaken, set between the sparkling lakes of Thun and Brienz and watched over by the legendary peaks of Eiger, Mönch, and Jungfrau. Explore the town at your own pace, wander through the Höhematte meadow with its incredible mountain views, and don't miss the amazing sight of paragliders drifting down from the sky – a true Interlaken highlight. Next, head to Lauterbrunnen, a valley straight out of a postcard, famous for its 72 waterfalls tumbling from sheer cliffs. Here, enjoy free time for lunch and exploring. Walk through the charming village, admire the Staubbach Falls, and soak in the peaceful alpine surroundings. The journey continues to Grindelwald, a picture-perfect mountain village at the base of the Eiger North Face. Surrounded by glaciers, green meadows, and towering peaks, it's a place made for epic photos and unforgettable memories. Finally, sit back and relax on the panoramic bus as you return to Lucerne, taking in one last look at the stunning Swiss landscapes. Perfect for nature lovers, adventure seekers, and anyone wanting to experience the Alps at their most breathtaking.
